

TEN MILLION
PEOPLE SUFFEREarthquakes and Famine Sorely
Afflict Japan.

MANY DIE OF STARVATION

Craters Suddenly Discharge Great Volumes of Flaming Rocks and Ashes, Carrying Death and Destruction Over Large Area—People Flee Across Land Heaving With Rapid Succession of Shocks.

Tokio, Jan. 14.—Japan heroically is meeting a double affliction—famine in the north and earthquakes and volcanic eruptions in the south.

Ten million persons are in need of food in Northern Honshu and Hokkaido and there have been many deaths from starvation.

In the south the islands of Kishu and Shikoku are in the grip of seismic disturbances. Craters suddenly have discharged great volumes of flaming rocks and ashes, carrying destruction and terrifying the Southern empire. Ashes are falling as far north as Osaka.

Although the fate of the inhabitants of Sakura island is not certain it is believed that the great majority of them have escaped in boats to the mainland.

Many of the people of Sakura have escaped from the danger zone in a maimed and burned condition. The cruiser Tone has sent a wireless dispatch to the effect that Sakura has been entirely evacuated.

Numerous Heroic Rescues.

The police and soldiers of Kagoshima made many heroic rescues. The men and women, accustomed to participation in the festivities to commemorate the eruption of 1779, did not realize the extent of the disaster and it is feared many of them were killed before reaching the seashore.

Thousands, pursued by a rain of fiery stones, knelt on the beach half submerged in water and gesticulated wildly to the steamers and fishing boats.

The heat is described as infernal. Junks report that stones fell hissing into the bay.

The refugees from Kagoshima fled across land heaving with a rapid succession of quakes. The whole southern half of Kishu is enveloped in ashes and smoke. Sakura Jima, however, appears to be the only volcano dangerously active at present.

The emperor is profoundly distressed over the disaster and has ordered additional warships to proceed immediately to the affected district.

Report Great Eruptions.

Advices from Nagano, capital of Nagano prefecture, and Asama-Yama, in the island of Honshu, report great eruptions.

Asama-Yama is a lofty volcano about ninety miles northwest of Tokio, with a crater about 1,000 feet in diameter. The scene is described as sublime, smoke and flames soaring thousands of feet into the sky. In the Utsumiya district the sky is overcast and every roof is covered with white ashes.

Many crevasses formed at Kagoshima, and owing to the snakelike movement of the surface of the earth the fugitives were forced to advance on all fours. Thousands took refuge on top of the famous Mount Shirayama, fearing a tidal wave. Many of the houses at Kagoshima collapsed and there are three feet of ashes in the street. They are said to contain poisonous gases.

BITTER COLD IN NEW YORK

Three Deaths From Exposure and Much Suffering Results.

New York, Jan. 14.—With the mercury standing at 3 degrees below zero this city lay in the grip of a cold snap of such severity as rarely is experienced here. Less than a dozen times in the forty-three years of the local weather bureau's history has the thermometer registered a temperature so low.

Notwithstanding this downward plunge of the mercury, which caused three deaths from exposure, this was the warmest region of the state, reports from the country in Northern New York showing a drop of nearly 7 degrees below.

A wind that at times blew seventy-five miles an hour added to the suffering.

WRIGHT BROTHERS VICTORS

Buffalo Decision on Aeroplane System
Upheld by New York Court.

New York, Jan. 14.—The decision of Judge John R. Hazel of the United States court at Buffalo reached on Feb. 2, last, that the Wright brothers were the pioneer inventors of what is known as the warping system of lateral control and the first men to heavier than air machines, was affirmed by Judges Lacombe, Cox and Ward of the United States circuit court of appeals here. They reached this decision on reviewing the complaint of the Herring-Curtiss company. The findings of the lower court, which resulted in a permanent injunction, have been sustained.

GENERAL STRIKE
IN SOUTH AFRICAGovernment Retaliates by Declaring Martial Law.

MUCH DEPENDS ON MINES

Should the Workers of the Rand Join in the Industrial Suspension It Will Mean That About Two Hundred Thousand Natives Will Be Sent Back to Their Homes at an Enormous Cost.

Capetown, Union of South Africa, Jan. 14.—A general strike throughout South Africa was proclaimed by the Trades Federation and the Rand miners, by a two-thirds majority, voted to join in the movement. Government retaliation was swift. It took the form of the proclamation of martial law.

This was the only step the authorities believed adequate to meet the situation, for the strike of the miners means not only the turning loose of the most turbulent spirits in the Rand, but raises the whole question of the position of the native workers.

The martial law proclamation covers the principal districts in the Transvaal, the Orange Free State and Natal, through which the main railway lines run, and includes the cities of Durban, Pietermaritzburg, Johannesburg and Pretoria, but does not take in the Cape province.

If the miners actually obey the strike order the government immediately will take steps to send the natives under escort back to their kraals.

This means that about 200,000 natives must march back by road to their homes at enormous cost. It will be most difficult after the end of the strike to recruit them again.

Such a step would mean disaster for the Rand for many years.

Train Service Demoralized.

Although official reports from Johannesburg show improvement in the train service reports from other districts are less encouraging.

In Natal the situation is one of great tension and it is feared the loyalty of the trainmen will not stand the strain much longer.

An instance of the men's temper is shown by the action of an engine driver who quit his train in the veldt and left the passengers stranded.

Practically no information is at hand as to conditions in the Orange Free State, but improvement there is not considered probable.

The union government remains firm in its attitude. The premier, General Louis Botha, is said to have declared that he would "guarantee that with the end of the present crisis there would not be another workers' strike in South Africa for a generation."

Feeling runs high between the government's supporters and the strikers and the chance of mediation is practically hopeless. The supreme court has granted an application compelling the government to show cause why the strike leaders should remain in prison.

Premier Botha has addressed a circular to the natives advising them to obey implicitly the compound managers, assuring them fullest protection, and the circular seems to have had an excellent effect.

URGES INCREASE IN ARMY

Major General Wood Submits His Annual Report.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Four steps of vital importance, essential to placing the United States army in a state of reasonable preparedness for possible war, were recommended to Secretary Garrison by Major General Leonard Wood in his final annual report as chief of staff. General Wood proposed:

First—Establishment of a reserve of trained men sufficient to bring the regular army immediately to full statutory strength and to replace the losses of the first three months of war.

Second—Prompt provision of the remaining 42 per cent of the field artillery project and necessary ammunition for those now made or under manufacture.

Third—Creation of the necessary organizations to give three complete tactical infantry divisions within the continental limits of the United States.

Fourth—Enactment of such personnel legislation as will eliminate effectively the unfit, and stimulate the efficient officer to continued efforts through establishing a condition under which progress in rank and command will have a close and dependent relationship upon capacity, fitness and accomplishment.

Confesses White Slavery.

Iola, Kan., Jan. 14.—Homer McCord, who on July 23 lured Mrs. Mary Armstrong Dean, a bride of a day, from her husband while the pair were on their honeymoon here, pleaded guilty to violation of the Kansas white slave law.

CURLEY IS BOSTON'S MAYOR

Congressman Defeats President Kenny of City Council.

Boston Jan. 14.—Congressman James M. Curley was chosen mayor of Boston by 5,720 votes over Thomas J. Kenny, president of the city council. Of a total of 80,000 votes polled the victorious candidate received 43,305 and President Kenny 37,250.

In 1903 Mr. Curley was convicted by a jury in the federal court of conspiring to defraud the government by impersonating another man at a civil service examination. He served a sentence of two months in the Charles street jail.

Both Mr. Kenny and Mr. Curley are Democrats.

The city made its usual pronounced declaration in favor of license.

FATE OF STEAMER
REMAINS UNKNOWNDozen Vessels Rush to Rescue of Sinking Ship.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 14.—Whether the Royal Mail line steamer Cobequid, which was reported rapidly sinking on the ledges of Grand Manan, with 120 persons on board, can be reached in time to effect a rescue is a matter of grave doubt. Nothing has been accomplished that offered any degree of hope.

A wireless crip for help came from the steamer, followed five hours later by a final flicker of her radio saying that the ship was filling.

Immediately nearly a dozen rescue boats were dispatched to her assistance. The greatest hope is pinned on the ability of the United States revenue cutter Woodbury and it was thought the first word from the Cobequid since her appeal would come from the American boat.

Vessels have cruised the east shore of the Bay of Fundy, where the Cobequid was first reported to have gone aground, but no traces of her were found.

URGING UNIFORM
MARRIAGE LAWSReformers Work For Amendment to Constitution.

WILL BE HARD TO ADOPT.

Eugenic Laws of Various States Show Necessity For Legislation—Darien Route For Panama Canal May Have Proved More Economical In End, Galloway on the Job.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Reformers have for years been urging uniform marriage and divorce laws for the whole country. Before congress can pass such a law there will have to be a constitutional amendment adopted permitting legislation upon that subject. It is expected that such an amendment will be pressed with a great deal of vigor this winter by those who make it their business to regulate the affairs of everybody else.

The eugenic laws for marriage which some states have adopted will be pointed out as a reason why uniform marriage and divorce laws should be enacted. It has been shown that since the eugenic law has been in force in Washington state hundreds of couples went to adjoining states to get married. The rush for marriage licenses in Wisconsin and the probable exodus from that state of persons wanting to marry will prove, according to the advocates of a new system, the necessity for uniform laws on the subject of marriage and divorce.

Will Be Hard to Adopt.

It is much to be doubted whether congress by a two-thirds vote in each house will adopt an amendment to this subject. It means breaking down state lines even to a greater extent than most people want. It will be the first step in the regulation of police powers, and many people who want to hold on to what they have in state rights do not look with favor on encroachments such as uniform marriage and divorce laws. Besides, it is not a question that really interests the people like the recent amendments.

The Darien Route.

At the time the congress of the United States was switching from the Nicaragua canal route to the Panama route, at the same time handing over $40,000,000 to the French schemers for their "ancient" concession, Nathan B. Scott, then a senator from West Virginia, tried to convince those who would listen to him that the correct route across the isthmus was the Darien route with a sea level canal.

Senator Scott may be able to tell them all, "I told you so," if those slides keep interfering with the canal as now located. He gave many good reasons at the time for the Darien route, and while it then promised to be more expensive, it may develop as time passes that it would have been cheaper.

Evidence of Economy.

A number of people were joking Merritt O. Chance, now chief clerk of the postoffice department, about the Taft economy commission, of which he was a member. "They can't say the commissioners did not economize," said Chance. "Why, the first day they met they saved the government $60,000. They first fixed their salaries at $20,000 a year, but immediately cut them to $10,000, making a reduction of $60,000 for the six members. You can't beat that for economy."

Having passed into history, the celebrated "economy commission" will be remembered as one which stirred up more trouble and accomplished less than many others whose cost exceeded something like half a million dollars.

Has the Ancestral Push.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, who has taken charge of the campaign for putting through the constitutional amendment granting women the right to vote, is a daughter of former Senator Hanna of Ohio. She has the hereditary push and energy of her distinguished father and will not leave anything undone which will accomplish results. It may be that one or two subsidiary or auxiliary organizations will be mussed up or brushed aside, but the faction which Mrs. McCormick heads will get results if they are to be obtained.

Out of Politics.

Dennis Flynn was once a delegate in congress from Oklahoma at a time when the western part of the present state came near being admitted. Flynn would have been United States senator if the statehood bill had passed. But he retired from politics and made pots of money and will come to Washington as a retired statesman to live and enjoy himself. Flynn was responsible for putting through the celebrated "free homes" law, by which something like $40,000,000 was remitted to the settlers on ceded Indian lands.

Galloway on the Job.

Assistant Secretary Galloway is on the job, running the department of agriculture, while Secretary Houston is away helping Secretary McAdoo organize the new banking system. Just why the agricultural secretary should be chosen for the big banking place is one of the mysteries of legislation. Had it been the secretary of commerce or even the attorney general there would have been reason for so doing. But the agricultural department is to have rural credit legislation later.

A sheepdog has twenty-nine and a half ounces of brain, a record for dogs; but a wolf has forty ounces or over.

Former Executive Charges Incumbent
Violates Civil Service Law.

Cincinnati, Jan. 14.—Former Mayor Henry T. Hunt announced that he would file complaint with Governor Cox charging Mayor Frederick Spiegel of this city with malfeasance and would ask for removal of the mayor from office. Hunt charges that Spiegel has violated the civil service law in appointing three men to positions occupied by men under civil service without giving the retiring men a chance to defend themselves according to law.

RAGGED REFUGEES
BEGIN LONG MARCHSoldiers and Civilians Leave
Presidio for El Paso.

Presidio, Tex., Jan. 14.—Turning their backs on Mexico the ragged soldiers and generals of the Mexican federal army, routed by the rebels from Ojinaga, Mex., opposite here, began their strange march toward Fort Bliss at El Paso, Tex., where they are to be kept indefinitely as wards of the United States government.

Only a portion of the refugees started, but the tattered band of soldiers, women and children, followed by horses, burros and dogs as they straggled over the road in clouds of dust, was a graphic picture of an army in retreat. The refugees on foot will be guarded by United States cavalry until they reach Marfa, sixty-seven miles from the border.

At Marfa ten trains of ten coaches each are to carry the Mexicans to El Paso under escort of four companies of the Twentieth United States infantry and at the army post at El Paso something like a village is to spring up until the foreign soldiers and their generals, who sought asylum in this country, are taken elsewhere or are returned to Mexico.

The refugees as officially counted by Major McNamee shows there are 3,352 soldiers and officers, 1,967 women and about 300 children and infants, who are to be housed and fed by this country.

NOT WRONG TO LIBEL KING

Court Refuses to Discriminate in Case of Belgian Journalist.

New York, Jan. 14.—If it would not involve moral turpitude to publish in England a defamatory libel "against a field laborer in Devon or a street sweeper in London," it would not involve moral turpitude to publish the same libel "regarding the lord chancellor or even the king," the United States court of appeals held. The court expressed this view in deciding that Edward F. Mylius, the Belgian journalist whom the department of commerce ordered deported a year ago, cannot be barred from the United States on the charge of moral turpitude.

Mylius was convicted in the English courts of having criminally libeled George V., by publishing that the king contracted a morganatic marriage with the daughter of Admiral Seymour in 1890.

VETERAN GOLD SEEKER DEAD

Orr Was in Alder Gulch in 1858, but Fortune Always Eluded Him.

Hamilton, Mont., Jan. 14.—George Orr, argonaut of the early Montana days and the last survivor of Bill Fairweather's party that in 1858 stumbled upon the famous gold deposits in Alder gulch, the biggest bonanza district discovered in the West, died suddenly at Hamilton. Alder gulch has yielded $120,000,000 gold, but Orr failed to get much of it, and though he had prospected practically ever since in every canyon of the state and in Utah the yellow metal always eluded him and the end found him at the age of eighty-four poor and still prospecting.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 14.—Gerald Sullivan, one of Montana's best known militia officers, and a former regular army officer, succumbed to injuries, the result of stumbling over a cliff, Gerald distinguished himself in 1904 by capturing an army of Coxeites who had stolen a train at Butte and were making their way East. He tore up the track near Fort Keogh and planted a half dozen galling guns along the Northern Pacific tracks. He was in the Philippine campaign of the Spanish war.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Diplomats of every foreign nation represented in Washington were received by President and Mrs. Wilson as guests of honor at the first official White House reception of the administration.

Officers of the president's cabinet, many members of the senate and house and others prominent in official life were present. The president and the members of his cabinet who stood at his side in the receiving line wore evening dress, in contrast with the profusely decorated uniforms of the diplomats.

An official count showed that exactly 2,072 persons were in attendance.

President Wilson Confers With His Cabinet.

FOR FRIENDLY CONCILIATION

Chief Executive Favors Peace and Not War in Dealing With Corporations, but Desires Legislation That Will Eliminate Uncertainty About
Sherman Law and Stimulate Growth of Legitimate Business.

Washington, Jan. 14.—President Wilson gave the members of the cabinet his ideas on the government's relation to big business, the field that anti-trust legislation should cover in the present session of congress and the spirit with which he believed the task should be approached.

Peace and not war, a feeling of friendly conciliation rather than of hostile antagonism, and yet a constructive program that will eliminate uncertainty about the law and stimulate the growth of legitimate business—these are the fundamentals of the president's plan of action to be embodied in the message which he will read at a joint session of congress next week.

He presented the document to the cabinet and worked on some minor changes as a result of the meeting. Members of the cabinet spoke of the message as a progressive declaration that will reassure the business world of the sincere intentions of the administration to deal fairly with it.

While the president has not yet revealed his views on detailed legislation he hopes his message will be the guiding star that will keep the scope of activity within a well-defined compass, eliminating so far as possible any congestion of radical bills that might be misinterpreted by the outside world.

So far as is known the cardinal features of the president's plan are:

Supplementing the Sherman anti-trust law to reduce the debatable area around it.

The prohibition of interlocking directorates.

Location of individual responsibility and the fixing of personal guilt for all violations.

Interstate Trade Commission.

The creation of an interstate trade commission to perform the functions not only of a bureau of information, but to determine by its investigations whether decrees of dissolution or modification of the court are carried out.

In this connection Mr. Wilson believes the whole course of public opinion has undergone a remarkable change in the last few years. From a point where doubt as to the existence of trusts at first was expressed, through the period when reasonable and unreasonable combinations in restraint of trade were debated, he believes there has developed now an acceptance of the principle that private monopolies are indefensible and that trusts practice certain things which ought to be prohibited.

The president is also reiterating to those with whom he is discussing the subject a view expressed in his pre-convention speeches two years ago—that to stop "joy riding" it is necessary "to arrest the chauffeur and not the automobile."

He is expected to recommend in his message that the law with respect to personal guilt should be enforced vigorously and provision made in all legislation for individual offenses.

One of the most important features of the anti-trust problem is the interstate trade commission. This organization differs from the kind of commission which was advocated by the national Progressive party during the last campaign, in that it would not be vested with powers of regulation, but would be the medium through which the government would keep the business world informed and eliminate "the twilight zone" in big industry.

Democratic Leader Predicts an Industrial Awakening.

Washington, Jan. 14.—An industrial awakening "that will put the panic preachers to shame" was promised by Democratic Leader Underwood after Republicans in the house had painted dark pictures of ruin and desolation as the result of Democratic legislation.

"The Democratic party," declared Mr. Underwood, "has achieved for the American people more than has been accomplished heretofore in the history of our government. We have secured the results which the Republican party struggled for in the course of twenty years; the results which they gave their pledges to secure and which for term after term of congress were left undone. I look forward to unusual prosperity throughout the country in the next year."

MANY POTATOES IMPORTED

Interesting Facts Concerning the Potato Crop in This and Other Countries Discussed

Recent discussions with reference to importations of potatoes into the United States lend interest to a statement compiled by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce showing the imports and exports of this class of merchandise during a long term of years. It shows that the largest importation of potatoes in any single year occurred in the fiscal year 1912, when the total quantity imported was 13,150,000 bushels, the next largest being in 1909, 8,333,333 bushels, and in 1902, 7,666,666 bushels. The total quantity imported since 1900 is practically 37,000,000 bushels and the quantity exported in the same period 16,000,000 bushels, the total production in the United States during that period having been over 4,000,000,000 bushels, or an average of approximately 300,000,000 bushels a year, the figures of recent years averaging about 300,000,000 bushels a year except in years of abnormally short crops.

The largest importations of potatoes naturally occur in years of short crops in the United States. The high record importation, that of the fiscal year 1912, 13,750,000 bushels, followed a short crop in the calendar year 1911, when the total production was but 293,000,000 bushels in the year immediately preceding.

The average import price of potatoes imported has ranged from 41 cents a bushel in 1902 to $1.09 in 1907 and $1.08 in 1911, the average price in 1912, the year of the largest importations, being 52 cents a bushel, and in 1913 93 cents a bushel. The average export price has ranged from 64 cents a bushel to $1.14, the average farm price having ranged from 43 cents in 1900 to 80 cents in 1911 and 69 cents in 1913.

England, Scotland and Ireland are the chief sources of supply of the potatoes imported.

Potatoes exported go chiefly to Cuba, Canada, Panama, Mexico, Colombia and Venezuela.

Potato production in the United States is small, compared with certain other countries having a much smaller area and much less population.

The farm value of the potato crop of the United States in 1913 is stated by the department of agriculture at $228,000,000, a larger total than for any earlier year except 1911, which was $234,000,000.

Guarding Against Croup

The best safeguard against croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. P. H. Ginn, Middleton, Ga., writes: "My children are very susceptible to croup, easily catch cold. I give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and in every instance they get prompt relief and are soon cured. We keep it at home and prevent croup." H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwt

PROSPERITY TO THE FRONT AGAIN

Big Three or Four-Story Building Planned for the A. L. Hoffman Corner

ANDREW CARLSON'S NEW ADDN.

Minnesota Central Ry. Co. to Start Surveying Crews Early in Spring

Braierd, in company with other cities, has witnessed a short lull in the march of progress, but this slight depression has about reached the peak and the steady swing to the prosperity column is now again in evidence.

The A. L. Hoffman corner at South Sixth and Laurel streets, it is now reported, will be improved by a three or four-story building. The main floor will be built for stores and the upper floors flats or offices. Minneapolis parties are interested in the lease.

Andrew Carlson, it is reported, will build a brick addition to his hotel.

The beautiful residence built by Walter Courtney is nearing completion. Residences are under construction in other sections of the city.

The Columbia theatre will soon be opened to the public. The J. M. Hayes two-story brick building, a great improvement in the business district, is being rapidly completed.

The Brainerd-Cuyuna mine is nearing the ore body and will soon be hoisting ore to the surface and stock piling.

The Longyear Exploration Co. has moved several drills on the county farm and will begin exploration work. In the future the Dispatch will cease to call this property of the county a "poor farm." It was such a farm in the past, but at present no poor are being housed there and it is purely and simply a county farm and one of the richest in the state of Minnesota.

The city council is receiving and considering plans for the new city hall. Contractors are being heard from who wish to do the filling at the Northeast Brainerd bridge site. The Northern Pacific railway has a steam shovel which can be rented at a nominal figure should the city decide to fill the cut itself. Dirt for the fill can be obtained from the 80 acres Judge Holland gave to the city.

The Minnesota Central Railway company will have a surveying crew at work in this vicinity early in the spring.

The layoff at the Northern Pacific railway shops is believed to be one of but temporary duration. Cold weather will cause the re-employment of many men and the addition of many new freight crews.

The Brainerd Fruit Co., with offices in the Gardner block, has so increased its territory, that it has been necessary to add a travelingman, N. P. Peterson, of St. Paul. It is said the company contemplates building a large warehouse in the spring.

The farmers and the business men of Brainerd and towns of the county are getting together on a cooperative basis. The farmers meeting at Long Lake drew such a crowd that the school house was not large enough to hold them. At Deerwood the annual meeting of the Bay Lake Fruit Growers association was commemorated by a dinner and entertainment given by the Deerwood Commercial club, the farmers being the guests of honor, and talk about farmers, fruit and vegetable growers and truck gardeners, etc. Deerwood saw more of them on Monday, January 12, than it ever did in its entire history and Deerwood is blessed with lots of history.

At the Gardner block C. O. Kristensen, of Duluth, has started an upholstery and piano and furniture finishing store and is meeting with success from the very start. "In casting about for a place to locate," said Mr. Kristensen, "I decided on Brainerd because I had read and heard a lot about Brainerd and I considered that Brainerd was the place which enjoyed the most opportunities for growth. I have cast my lot with Brainerd and I am going to boost for Brainerd all I can."

The Northwestern Telephone Exchange Co., represented by A. A. Gieriet, is following the development of Brainerd by installing a telephone in the home or business place of every new arrival in Brainerd and inducing many others to install telephones who never enjoyed the satisfaction of having one.

This year will witness the installation of much cement paving in the city, giving employment to many men.

The mining situation looks bright on the Cuyuna iron range and it is confidently expected that more ore will be shipped this year than in any other year of range work. There are no labor troubles.

The United Commercial Travelers' council will initiate candidates at its next meeting, Saturday evening, January 17. This lodge is having a steady growth, another indication of prosperity, for travelingmen do not cover any country unless there is business to be picked up.

There may be a spirit of pessimism in Brainerd, but when speaking of shop layoffs one should remember that every shop and roundhouse town on the N. P. suffers a diminution of its working force every winter and that in the present case Tacoma got the first layoff and Brainerd was the last on the entire system.

The Brainerd Commercial club and the Booster club of Brainerd and every other agency working for the advancement of the city are working full time proclaiming to the world the advantage enjoyed by Brainerd and the opportunities existing here.

S. F. ALDERMAN CHARMS SHAKOPEE

Former Senator is the Lion of the Evening at a Delightful Musical Given

AT HOME OF SENATOR COLLIER

Shakopee Tribune Pays Tribute to Powerful and Dramatic Voice of Brainerd Man

The Shakopee Tribune of January 9th pays tribute to the powerful and dramatic voice of Senator S. F. Alderman of this city who took part in a delightful musicale in that city and charmed all who heard his baritone selections. The article states: "At their beautiful home on the hill last Monday night, Senator Julius A. Collier and his charming wife entertained at dinner a party of ten, and later a company of nearly thirty music lovers of the town. It need hardly be said that the dinner was a most prettily appointed affair, and a merry party, including as it did among the guests Senator Pugh of Duluth, Senator Dineen of Minneapolis and Senator Alderman of Brainerd, Dr. and Mrs. Fischer of Mudeura sanitarium, Miss Faricy and others.

At eight o'clock a musical program was enjoyed, in which Miss Laura Collier displayed her interest and highly developed musical taste by rendering "Cachoucha Caprice" as a piano solo; Miss Thornton again delighted her admirers with dainty soprano solos sung to her own accompaniment; Mr. Faricy favored with a number of tenor solos, Irish, Scotch, Italian and English ballads and characteristic songs; and Senator Alderman, the lion of the evening, with a number of baritone and bass songs. We have had occasion before to note Mr. Emmet Faricy's beautiful, pure lyric tenor voice, and it is sufficient to say that he never sang better in his life than on the occasion referred to. We are all proud of this Scott County boy, who some day will win a wide fame in the musical world.

And as for the powerful, dramatic, perfectly placed and melodious voice of Senator Alderman, we can only say that he is blessed to a marked degree with a singing voice that charms from the first note to the last. His songs were not only well chosen, but they were rendered with a musician's skill and artistry which seldom greets the ear of the local musical circles.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the musical program, and social converse and a little talk in reminiscence vein by Senator Pugh, who came to this section of the state in 1855, locating in Mankato, and engaging for some time in teaming between St. Paul and that city in the pioneer days, rounded out a most enjoyable social event. Little Jack Collier added to the charm of the evening, also, by reciting The Naughty Kittens in a manner which showed beyond cavil that he comes from a line of orators.

The four senators of the party have been political friends and collaborators for many years past, and the charms displayed by each of the quartette on Monday night gave some inkling why they have held their offices for many years continuously.

In the column devoted to items from the Mudeura baths, penned by Dr. Walter Weimers, is the following reference to Senator Alderman:

A short session of the upper house of the state legislature was held at Mudeura last Friday evening, when Senator Pugh of Duluth and Senator Alderman of Brainerd, who are resting up at the sanitarium, entertained Senator Julius A. Collier of Shakopee, and Senator Charles Klein of Chaska for the evening. Miss Laura Collier favored the gathering of the solons with music, and later an informal dance was enjoyed in the dining room. A jolly time was had.

Their Hope.

"I shouldn't think there would be any difficulty in renting haunted houses to actors."

"Why not?"

"Because actors like to see the ghost walk."—Baltimore American.

NEW LAWS ARE NOW EFFECTIVE

Annual Meeting of Stockholders of First National Bank Held on Tuesday, Jan. 13

G. D. LABAR ELECTED PRESIDENT

It Was Just 31 Years Ago That Day When Mr. LaBar First Came to Brainerd

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Brainerd on Tuesday, January 13, when George D. LaBar was re-elected president, marked a coincidence of dates, for it was just 31 years ago that day that Mr. LaBar came to Brainerd.

The town at that time had a population of about 5,000. The First National bank building had been completed in the fall of 1882.

"The thermometer registered about 40 below," said Mr. LaBar. "I came to Brainerd from Zumbrota, arriving here on a night train. I spent the balance of the night with Judge Holland, who had an office and rooms west of the present hose house. My first meal in Brainerd, I remember, was in a restaurant conducted in the basement of the store now occupied by H. P. Dunn."

"Arriving on Saturday, I did not expect to start work as collection clerk until the following Monday. H. H. Barber was in the bank as assistant cashier and acting manager with no one to help him and it became necessary for me to go to work at once. For a time Mr. Barber and myself were the whole working force of the bank."

"It was very cold that winter. The windows of the bank froze up and never thawed out until spring. Stoves heated the building and it required almost constant attention to keep the bank stove doing its duty and the room fairly warm."

For many years the First National bank was the only bank in Brainerd or Crow Wing county. Lumbering was the chief industry. Supplies were toted from Brainerd to the camps years before the M. & I. railway was built.

In the spring of 1883 H. J. Spencer, president of the First National bank, came to Brainerd and took up his work in the bank. He had been elected to succeed William Ferris. Judge Holland was then cashier and continued in that position for several years, although not active. He had a law office in the bank building in the room now used as the president's office, occupying the same with Judge W. S. McClenahan who later formed a law partnership with Judge Holland.

Mr. LaBar was promoted from one position to another until he attained the presidency of the First National bank on September 19, 1903, filling the vacancy caused by the death of A. F. Ferris.

Under Mr. LaBar's management the bank has made its greatest progress, attaining the highest rank as one of the best managed and most conservative and solid financial institutions of the country.

A REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE

Some of the Most Important Legislation Passed by Last Legislature is Now Operative

NEW TAX CLASSIFICATION ACT

Puts Property Into Four Classes and Provides a Percentage Scale Instead of Full Value

Several of the most important pieces of legislation enacted into laws by the last legislature became operative January 1st of the present year and among the list is the new tax classification act which supersedes the old law which required all property to be assessed at full cash value, and in its place provides a percentage scale. The practical operation of the old law did not in any sense have the effect of listing personal property at its full cash value and the new law, if its provisions are enforced, will resemble the rates at which property was listed under the old "full cash value" law. The division of property under the new law is in four classes, and provides that iron ore lands, constituting class 1, shall be assessed at 50 per cent of their actual value. Class 2, to be assessed at 25 per cent of full value, includes all household goods and furniture and wearing apparel. Class 3 includes livestock, poultry, stocks of merchandise, agricultural products, manufacturers' materials and products, all tools and implements, and all unplatted real estate except iron ore property, and is to be assessed at 33 1-3 per cent of its actual value. Class 4, to be assessed at 40 per cent of its true value, includes city real estate and any other property not specifically mentioned in the three first classes.

The Cashman distance tariff law applies to Minnesota the plan of the Iowa distance tariff. It requires rates to be based on distance alone, prohibiting any railroad from charging more to haul a given kind and quantity of freight for a certain distance than it charges for a like distance anywhere else on its line. The act contains some clauses relaxing the absolute rigidity of the measure. The state railroad commission has prescribed new maximum schedules for the roads to observe under the act. The Cashman joint rate law authorizes the railroad commission to prescribe joint rates for freight hauled over more than one line, and to make them lower than the sum of the local rates on each line.

The locomotive headlight law, passed through the efforts of trainmen's organizations, requires all engines used in railroad traffic except switch engines, to be equipped with headlights of at least 1,500 candlepower, measured without the aid of a reflector which is said to mean use of electric headlights.

The Bendixen 2-cent fare law was passed to help the state in the event the 1907 2-cent fare law should be declared unconstitutional.

The sleeping car tax law fixes a gross earnings tax of 5 per cent on companies operating sleeping cars in Minnesota, an increase from 4 per cent.

The uniform warehouse receipt law is one to expedite the handling of warehouse receipts as collateral, making the Minnesota law on the subject identical with that of other states so as to standardize the methods of handling them.

The "pure mattress" law takes effect Jan. 1, and will protect the buyers of mattresses against second-hand materials. It requires every mattress sold to have a label showing materials used in its manufacture, and whether they are used or have been used before.

Another new law allows mileage to town assessors for trips to the county seat.

Not Beyond Help at 87

Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St., Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday, and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley's Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case." H. P. Dunn.—Adv.

ESDON ETCHINGS

The oyster supper and dance at Mrs. Sabrina Chord's was quite a success, between 50 and 60 being present.

Mrs. Sabrina Chord's school began Monday after New Years.

Mrs. Melissa Starry and children are still at her mother's. The little folks are having a touch of the gripple.

The Aid met at Mrs. R. J. Maghan's the 7th, but Mrs. Maghan had to be gone owing to sickness at Neutral. It will meet with Mrs. M. L. Hammett Wednesday, Jan. 21. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

Miss Ada Dye began her school here in Esdon Jan. 12th.

Mrs. R. J. Maghan and Leslie and Mrs. Joe Bergfalk and little Joe, visited with Mrs. M. L. Hammett last Saturday afternoon.

We are having some decidedly cold weather this week. Perhaps it seems more so owing to so much warm weather this fall.

Mrs. Arthur Maghan and baby have returned from Deerwood where they have been for a few days.

Mrs. John Pine and daughter Hannah have been making some repairs on their house and teepee.

Young Women: Number Surprising

The number of young women who suffer with weak back, dizzy and nervous spells, head ache and weariness is surprising. Kidney and bladder ills cause these troubles, but if Foley Kidney Pills are taken as directed relief follows promptly and the ills disappear. Contain no habit forming drugs. H. P. Dunn.—Adv.

YACHTSMEN'S MAGIC EIGHT.

That Number of Letters Favored For Name of Vanderbilt Cup Race.

Sentiment is taking hold in the matter of providing a name for the Vanderbilt syndicate cup yacht, designed by Nat Herreshoff, and it is a matter of public discussion about the Herreshoff boat shops at Bristol, R. I., that the new racer, yet in the initial stages of construction, will have a name of eight letters, conforming to a sentimental policy of long standing relative to cup yachts. A multitude of names has been suggested informally, but the naming of the yacht may not take place for weeks to come.

It is pointed out that the Reliance, Vigilant, Defender and Columbia, all successful cup yachts, had each only eight letters in their names, while the Constitution, a cup candidate in 1901, had several more letters in her name. She was not selected.

It is said that having eight letters in a yacht's name is a good omen.

Overpowered Them.

The late General E. Burd Grubb, when minister to Spain by favor of Secretary Blaine, created a sensation by his court dress. When he came to be presented at court there were murmurs at his plain civilian dress. General Grubb turned back, donned the ornate uniform of a captain of the Philadelphia City Troop—red jacket with riding trousers, metal helmet with sweeping black plume—and returned to the palace. He then wore flowing side whiskers, and the American minister's presence was so commanding that he attracted more attention than did their majesties.—Springfield Republican.

The Right Bone.

"Fred, dear, I feel it in my bones that you are going to take me to the theater tonight."

"Which bone, darling?"

"I'm not sure, but I think it's my wishbone."

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't hesitate. A laxative is necessary if tongue is coated, breath bad or stomach sour

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if the tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.—Adv.

The Irishman in France had been challenged to a duel. "Shure," he cried, "we'll fight wid shillalans!"

"That won't do," said his second. "As the challenged party you have the right to choose the arms, but chivalry demands that you should decide upon a weapon with which Frenchmen are familiar."

"Is that so, indeed?" returned the generous Irishman. "Then we'll fight it out wid guillottes."—New York Times.
